

I am disturbed that you would consider overriding Indiana's telephone privacy law. Over 50% of all Indiana households are now enrolled. That is quite a mandate that you seem intent to overturn. I used to receive literally 5 to 8 calls a DAY. Now, I might receive 1-2 calls per month. I do not want the stringency of the Indiana law lessened and would appreciate your leaving my state's law alone.